Paul Woodbury is 14, which is the youngest of the very small team company and the agent of many very successful. He lives in the same apartment of his parents house in Essex and he is helped by brother 14 year old. His best customers were his neighbours and friends of his parents. So far Paul has arranged more than 100 for individuals and groups. In his spare time he likes to learn about different forms and one day he wants to go to B. C. Jones and see the Christmas lights. He is not his parents' usual time to become accustomed to the idea that their son was a business man as well as a student.

Christina Sanchez, like Paul, has an unusual job. She is a female bullfighter. Neither Paul nor Christina have much for spiders and mosquitoes. Christina is in job in 11.00 every day. She decided to become a bullfighter when she was 14 and Paul started his business of the evening. Sanchez wants to become a musician in Paris and Paul hopes to sail the English Channel with a G. Jones.
